HAYES,

and Genuine Southern

Put Away for the Present, and he is Made to Feel at Home.

and Thompson-What Governor

Hampton Had to Say-Invitation from Georgia.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY ARRIVED

cort. President Hayes stood on a platform-car, his left arm by his side and the right on that you cannot write the early history of the State of Ohio. [Three cheers were given marks I then made, but it seems not inappropriate to persue the same general course of the remarks with which I welcomed the versations and speeches of that favored and and Kentuckians. He used to say, with that habit of his of drawing illustrations from ost eloquent governor of Ohio and native of

We come.

WM. MILLER.

VOL XXXVI -NUMBER 221

11 1-4c. New York gold, 103. WEATHER INDICATIONS. WAR DRIVE, OFFICE Cu. Sts. OFFICER, | WARRINGTON, September 18, 1 s.m. | For Tennessee and the Ohio valley, stationary or higher pressure, northerly winds, and colder, clear or partly cloudy weather.

OSSERVATIONS YESTERDAY. WAR DEP'T, SIGNAL SERVICE U. S. ARST. | MONDAY, September 17, 1877, 10:08 p.m. | Wind. | Weath

Bar, Ther. Dir. | Force. er. W. M. M'ELROY, Sergeant.

THE Kareas City exposition opened yes-

A FRENCH bark, with three cases of yellow fever on board, was quarantined off New Orleans yesterday.

THE towboat monopolies at New Orleans have agreed to advance the rates of towage from the passes up to that port. LETTERS have been received at St. Paul identifying Hobart Pasia, of the Turkish army, as Captain Northrop, formerly of THE Jackson (Miss.) Times, notwithstanding the denial of that gentleman, still advocates Hon. A. G. Brown for governor, What does it mean?

THE citizens of Rocklin, California, have ordered all Chinamen to leave that place by President's car in front, that the President LATEST telegraphic advices from Fernandina, Florida, report three deaths yesterday with the fever spreading rapidly. Liberal re sponses are coming in to the appeals for aid.

THE Union county zinc mines are a paying and profitable investment. Fifty-eight men are employed in the works, and it is proposed to establish zinc-metal works near Knoxville. A storm, said to be similar to that of September, 1875, swept over Galveston yesterday. Particulars are very meagre, as the roads subm rg d.

for the prize at the Inter-State match at Creedmoor yesterday, the New York amateur club was the victor; the Crescent City club, of New Orleans, being third in the highest DAVID C. STEWART, a seaman, was arrested at Brooklyn navy-yard yesterday, charged with defrauding the government out of large sums of money for timber alleged to have been used at Nashville during the war. THE Winona Free Press is very severe upon the Independents who are cropping up in | period in the history of affairs, had the cour-Mississippi, and says: "They are men usu-ally who in the darkest hours of our troub." age to say he serves his party best who serves his country most. Irrespective of party, race ally, who in the darkest hours of our troubles, and our greatest need, were in the ranks of our oppressors, or, if you will pardon the expression, 'on the fence.'" ally, who in the darkest hours of our troubles, and our greatest need, were in the ranks of our oppressors, or, if you will pardon the expression, 'on the fence.'"

President Hayes did not reply, except to assure, through Mayor Jacob, that he would

THE merchants who met in Philadelphia yesterday to devise some place by which property destroyed in the recent riots may be paid introduced to the people by General E. H. Murray, Rev. Stuart Robinson again welfor, adopted a resolution "that we still adhere to the resolution passed at the meeting of Angust 30th, not to put our claims in the concourse, and frequently met with outbursts loud and prolonged, Mr. and guarantee the recovery of the money for us within two years from date of loss." within two years from date of loss." window facing the multitude. The speech of the President was received with wild en-

THE statistics of the cotton crop, just issued by the Commercial and Financial Chronicle, show that the consumption of cotton in the United States, for the year ending August 31, 1877, was 1,435,400 bales, which in this country, the next highest year being the one preceding, when the quantity taken the year preceding the panic was 1,201,000 bales. This shows, says the Bulletin, from whom we borrow the above facts second hand, that, in spite of the complaints of depression in the cotton goods trade, last year was one of unprecedented activity.

spondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, it is generally believed in that city that the President has virtually made up a slate of changes which will be made in the foreign missions. Pierrepont's recall, as soon as his successor can be decided on, is conceded. Some of the friends of Governor Hartranit, of Pennsylvania, are urging his appointment in Pierrepont's place, and it is said that the President | Kentucky, Governor Corwin. He was fond, is inclined to receive the suggestion with in his eloquent speeches and still more elofavor, and hesitates mainly because Hart Democratic governor by the promotion of the present Democratic lieutenant-governor, and would also offend the Camerons. The appointment of Henry S. Sanford to be minister to Belgium is said to have been already de-ticle from the New Orleans Times, suggest- populous in early times, and by far the most of public improvement, "pull together," powerful, was always ready to help Ohio when she needed help. In every moment and and there cante division and adsocret, and the banks are more expanded than is safely first the banks are the banks are more expanded than it safely first the banks are the banks are more expanded than it safely first the banks are m

MEMPHIS, TENN, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1877.

Thompson, saying that "he is one you will Right, as the President generally is; but

SPEECH OF SECRETARY THOMPSON

you that the navy is floating upon the ocean found it true on the other side of the river, and I have found it true here in Kentucky. A distinguished statesman said to General cott during the war: "When the armies of the Union are successful there will be peace On the Sacred Soll of Kentucky, is and content everywhere." General Scott remarked: "No, sir; not for some time after the war; for after the successful close of the war you will find that the whole power of the Greeted as a Disciple of Henry Clay, and Treated to a Very Hearty general government will be necessary to keep down the beligerent non-combatants of the country." [Applause.] Perhaps the old man had the spirit of prophesy in him said my friend. These who fight upon the field learn to respect each other. The soldiers of both armies imperilled their lives for n Obedience to the Laws of Hospitality. the cause, and such men always respect each other. [Applause.] It is for them to come together in the beginning. I was the Fact of the Frand by which he Reached the Presidency is under the impression that our southern riends had the advantage of us; that you had better marksmen and better horsemen in proportion to us. We had to learn to shoot His Speech and the Speeches of Secreta nd to ride; but after we had learned it, it then became a fight between Greek and Greek, and we all know what that means. And now, my friends, that being over, why shall not we come together? Oh, we have come together! [Applause.] The demonstration in Louisville tells the whole story. I need not shout myself hoarse beries Evarts, Key, Schurz, M'Crary fore this great audience in making a speech about the happiness and seace we are now enjoying in all sections of the Union. This demonstration has made the speech of the occasion. Nothing can be added to it. I think we can confidently look forward to the featured union on the basis of the constitufraternal union on the basis of the constitu-CINCINNATI, September 17.—President Hayes and party were escorted by the milition as it now is, with all the amendments. My friends, my Confederate friends, do you intend to obey the whole constitution and tary and a large number of prominent citizens to the Ohio and Mississippi depot, where they took a special train for Louisville at seven o'clock this morning. The train con-sists of a handsomely decorated locomotive, the directors' car of the Louisville and Nashamendments? [Applause.] I thought you

LIEUTENANT CLARKE left Camp Dick Robinson, Nebraska, yesterday, in charge of a delegation of Iudian chiefs on their way to Washington.

Washington.

The citizens of Rocklin, California, have the locomotive placed in the rear and the ten o'clock to-day, and it is said they will stay not, but go at once.

President's car in front, that the Fresheld may have a better opportunity to observe the splendid decorations on the bridge and along the railroad to the depot, and the people a may have had, have never been wanting in a new time to see him. and are prepared to extend to him a welcome in Kentucky's best and most hospi.able mantions, but for two generations we have had a border line of border States through this great country. But this is now all changed; that line has goue forever, and now no one can draw the line between Ohio and Kentucky, between the north and the south, no more than they can between party will be continued.

The was largely attended, and the scene presented to the observer was one of extreme beauty and brilliancy. To-morrow the entertainment of the Presidential party will be continued. at fity-three minutes past eleven o'clock in charge of the committee of reception and es-New York and Pennsylvania or between Geor car, his left arm by his side and the right on his breast; to his right was Mrs. Hayes, Miss Evarts and others, and on his left W. N. Haldeman, General Harlan and other General E. H. Murray introduced Mayor who spoke as follows:

"MR. PRESIDENT—The people of Lotsville, the metropolis of Kentucky, proud of their grand statesman, 'Old Harry of the West,' who uttered one of the noblest sentiments that ever fell from the lips of mortal when I ask of you to agree with me that by the wisdom and patriotism of the President of the United States that line has been oblitman, 'I would rather be right than President, greet joyously his disciple, that President of the United States who, at a critical erated? Now, the President has alluded to two great points in which the north has to learn more than the south. The great Perthree things—to ride, to shoot, and to speak the truth; and our youth on both sides hav-ing learned to ride and shoot, let us all speak the truth to one another. Now, gentlemen, we have all come together after learning th terrible lesson, and one such lesson is suffi-cient. Let no part of our vast country have The President and escort arrived at the Galt house at twelve forty. His excellency and Mrs. Hayes were another conflict between armed men. [Ap The President announced his pleasure being able to introduce to his fellow people a man well known to all, coming them. During the remarks of Dr. Robinson, which were listened to by a vast WADE HAMPTON, OF SOUTH CAROLINA. Fully five minutes elapsed before Governor

Hampton could speak, so loud and long were the cheers given him. He then said: MR. PRESIDENT AND MY FRIENDS OF KEN-TUCKY—I congratulate you upon this auspicious occasion, and upon the magnitude of the reception which we have given to the President of the United States. [Applause.] There is no place in America where the thing usiasm, thousands cheering themselves hoarse as they applauded the sentiments he uttered or responded to the questions he asked. When the applause subsided which greeted President Hayes on arising to address the people, he spoke as follows, the could have been better done, and I am sure that there is no place in America where it has been better done than in the city of Lou-isville. [Applause.] There is no place where cheers which interrupted him at times being isville. it could it could have been more appropriate, because the political opinions of a majority of the peo-ple of Kentucky are different from those of MR. ROBINSON AND PELLOW CITIZENS OF LOUISVILLE—I thank you for this Kentucky welcome. The people of Kentucky and the people of Onio are old acquaintances. The early history of the two States is so blended his Excellency. You have shown that you recognize in him a man who has done his duty; a man who has risen high enough to be able to say that "he serves his party best who serves his country most," for that is a sentiment which ought to fine Ohio without having more than haif its pages filled with your talk of Kentucky. [Applause]. You have come here to pay him And I suspect you cannot write the history of Kentucky without occasionally mentioning honor, and I regard myself as extremely for ticipate in it. And without disrespect to the for Ohio ] Eight years ago I had occasion to join in a welcome to the members of the legislature and other distinguished men of Kentucky. I cannot undertake to repeat the regentlemen who invited me to this reception, for I am a southern man-extend a warm greeting to the President as he struck southern soil, as he stood on the once dark and bloody ground of Kentucky, now no longer so, but, as I trust in God here and elsewhere, Kentuckians eight years ago. My earliest recollections and my earliest knowledge of Kentucky is associated indelibly with the cona land of peace, prosperity and happiness peace and prosperity which he has mostly given to you. My friends of Louisville, I thank you cordially and sincerely for myself. I thank you in the name of South Carolina, and I will say to his Excellency, that if h him a greeting as warm as this. Though perhaps, we can't show him as many men, we will show him that we have not forgotten that act of kindness, reconciliation and justice that he did for South Charolina. [Applause.] The President, again speaking, said: I now have the pleasure of introducing to you the governor of one of the most remarkable sisters, and in their manhood they pursued the hostile savages and British invaders from Ohio and Indiana. The common observation Ohio and Indiana. The common observation is that Kentucky, the first State and most populous in early times, and by far the most powerful, was always ready to help Ohio when she needed help. In every moment and of public improvement, "pull together," on every occasion of apprehension Ohio also says: "The public men of the south, as well ways appealed to Kentucky, and never appealed in vain. The bones of Kentucky's MR. VAN ZANDT, GOVERNOR OF RHODE as southern journalists, one cannot forbear adding, are acting very unavely in seeking to make the Texas Pacific subsidy job a sectional question. If it be true, as our New cordial and freely relation of the property of the south in a lamost unanimously in favor of it, then was provided in value and the continued on, and in 1824, Ohio rejoiced to care they vote for Kentucky, and the east of the continued on, and in 1824, Ohio rejoiced to care they vote for Kentucky, and the east of the continued on a savage invasion occurred to a save with an official dispatch from General Sturgist He save and the captured to save an only say so much the worse for the quarter savage and the south, in a save an occurred to a sav

FOREIGN NEWS.

-A Fearful Vengeance on the Jews-No Serious Engagement Near Pl van Since Wednesday.

The people have shown by this demonstration that they have forgotten the past, and look only to the future. I take some pride to-day to myself, for, although I have fived upon the other side of the river, here upon this side was my first home. [Cheers.] I lived here when the population did not exceed twenty thousand; but then I learned to love Kentucky, and that with all my heart. I have stood by her through good and through the Fight. My friends, what did you com here for? What do you mean by it? Just to hear the President of the United States speak? Why, you people of Kentucky are hearing speeches all your lives, and a man who cannot speak is generally driven out of the State.

[Laughter.] They drove me away for that [laughter] forty-six years ago, and I have been trying ever since to learn how to speak, so that I might find myself at home again whenever I came back to Kentucky. [Applause.] You came here to greet an honest President, for doing honest work. [Applause.] You came here to let by-gones be by-gones A voice-"That's so. Secretary Thompson continued to speak in the same pleasing strain, the sentiments he uttered being vociferously applauded. In response to loud calls from the great SECRETARY SCHURZ the directors' car of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, the directors' car of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, a Pullman palace car, and a baggage car. In addition to the President and his immediate family, the party consists of San analyzed and solution in the president and his immediate family, the party consists of San analyzed and condition to the president and his immediate family, the party consists of San analyzed and spoke a few words. He spoke eloquently and ably of the reconciliation, expressed his admiration for Kentucky and Kentuckians, paid a glowing tribute to his German fellow-citizens, and warmly allowed to the stretching from the frozen north to the glowing south, from the white billows of the Atlantic to the calm waters of the Pacific main, that would contain one people, one language and one faith, and everywhere a home for the Interior Carl Schurz, Postmaster-General D. M. Key, Secretary-of-War M'Crary and Mrs. M'Crary, Governor Van Zandt, of Rhode Island; Governor Mathews, of West Virginia, and wife; Governor Young, of Ohio: E. V. walked with Mr. Hayes, and Mayor Jacob with Mrs. Hayes, the cabinet officers, gov-ernors, generals, etc., following, surrounded by the children of the public schools, who welcomed the distinguished strangers with appropriate songs. The President bowed to them, and under their guidance was led through several aisles of the building, which were festooned with flowers and evergreens, and tastefully decorated with flags and handsomely-colored bunting of all kinds. The board of school trustees called upon the party, and its pathway through the Exposition was STREWED WITH ROSES. better opportunity to see him.

AT LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, September 17.—The coming of President Hayes and his cabinet, the different governors and other distinguished love of their country, and in an estimate of its greatness there was nothing that we supposed our country was not large enough for in its effects to improve the human race; but we, some of us, had an undue estimate of the members of his cabinet proceeded to the guests, causes an entire suspension of business, and the assemblage about the depot where the party will arrive and along the streets to be followed en route to the hotel is such as was, perhaps, never previously seen in Louisville. The great bridge leading into Louisville. The great bridge leading into the streets to be followed to the hotel is such as was, perhaps, never previously seen in Louisville. The great bridge leading into Louisville over the Ohio at this rount is an and now, hereafter, and forever, all are one dent of the members of his catinet proceeded to the such as the such as the understant of the great house of General Bristow, where they house of General Bristow, where they with John Watts Kearney, Esq. In the evening the Presidential party again visited that our territory, our population and our power, was large enough to make two nations of. But that idea has been dispelled, and now, hereafter, and forever, all are one dent of the streets of the scatter of the streets of the s Louisville. The great bridge leading into Louisville over the Ohio at this point is appropriately and elegantly decorated with national and patriotic mottoes of rich and beautiful designs. Houses of all kinds along the route of the procession are also handsomely covered with evergreens and colors combined into popular sentiments, etc. The people greet joyously the arrival of the President, and now, hereafter, and forever, all are one dent of the company, delivered an address of welcome, and was responded to briefly by Mr. Hayes. In the afternoon the structure was taxed to its utmost capacity to contain the great crowd in attendance. Strangers are here from all parts of the land, and Kenton before, a border line of States, let us be thankful. Other countries have and are prepared to extend to him a welcome, and now, hereafter, and forever, all are one welcome, and now, hereafter, and forever, all are one welcome, and now, hereafter, and forever, all are one welcome, and now, hereafter, and forever, all are one welcome, and success of welcome, and was responded to briefly by Mr. Hayes. In the afternoon the structure was taxed to its utmost capacity to contain the great crowd in attendance. Strangers are here from all parts of the land, and Kenton hayes and are prepared to extend to him a welcome, and now, hereafter, and forever, all are one welcome, and success of welcome, and was responded to briefly by Mr. Hayes. In the afternoon the structure was taxed to its utmost capacity to contain the great crowd in attendance. Strangers are here from all parts of the land, and Kenton hayes and are prepared to extend to him a welcome, and now, hereafter, and now, herea in Louisville. The reception at the Galt of elegance and the completeness of its entire arrangement. It was largely attended, and > is composed of the President and Mrs. Hayes, Webb Hayes, Miss M Farland, Mr. Evarts, secretary of state; Miss Mary Evarts, Miss Bettie Evarts, Mr. Prescott Evarts, Chas. H. Carl Schurz, secretary of the interior; General M'Crary, secretary of war, and Mrs. M'Crary; Mr. D. M. Key, postmaster-general; Governor Charles VanZant, of Rhode Island; Governor Henry M. Mathews, of West Virginia, wife, children and nurse; Randolph Starlanker, jr., secretary of West Virginia; H. T. Gosling, of Tennessee, and Wade Hamp-

AN INTERESTING FEATURE of to-day's proceedings has been the introduction to the people by Mr. W. N. Halde-man of Mrs. Hayes. The shouts which greeted her appearance were louder than those given at any other time of the day. UNANIMOUS INVITATION EXTENDED THE PRESIDENT TO VISIT ATLANTA.

ATLANTA, GA., September 17.—A full meeting of citizens, irrespective of party, presided over by Mayor Angier, extended an unanimous invitation to President Hayes and cabinet to visit Atlanta, and appointed a committee of twenty, with Ex-United States Senator Miller as chairman, to meet the party at Chattanooga on Thursday. It is hoped the President will accept. Special trains are COLUMBUS, OHIO, September 17,—Nothing definite has been heard from Dyer, the missing cattle-buyer, who was supposed to have been murdered and robbed rear Groveport last Friday, but very many rumors are afloat. Dyer's father is here from Pittsburg working up the case. He says his son has been spec-ulating in stock, but how heavily he does not tion. know. It is reported that Dyer was to have been married on the night of his disappear-ance, and that he wore a new suit of wedding clothes away from this city, but of this his out he evidently does not take much stock in the murder theory. Some parties living near Groveport tell the usual stock of stories of mysterious horsemen, and tramps with black beards, but few give them credence. There is a growing feeling here that Dyer will turn up before long.

Sheriff's Sale of Real Estate.

DUBLIC notice is hereby given. That by virtue of an execution to me directed from the Honorable Chancery Court of Shelby county. Tennessee, in the case of J. L. McAleny vs. Daniel Crowler, ludgment rendered on the 21st day of December, 1875, for the sum of twenty dollars and seventy-five cents, costs of sult; to satisfy said judgment, etc.,

They then the chancery Court of Shelby county. Tennessee, in the case of J. L. McAleny vs. Daniel Crowler, ludgment rendered on the 21st day of December, 1875, for the sum of twenty dollars and seventy-five cents, costs of sult; to satisfy said judgment, etc.,

They then the chancery Court of Shelby county. Tennessee, in the case of J. L. McAleny vs. Daniel Crowler, ludgment rendered on the 21st day of December, 1875, for the sum of twenty dollars and seventy-five cents, costs of sult; to satisfy said judgment, etc.,

They then the chancery Court of Shelby county. Tennessee, in the case of J. L. McAleny vs. Daniel Crowler, ludgment rendered on the 21st day of December, 1875, for the sum of twenty dollars and seventy-five cents, costs of sult; to satisfy said judgment, etc., I will, on great agricultural products of our fertile soil, indicative of prosperity and happiness, the result of that peace; that upon its guard are found so near together the arms of the United from Sulieman Pasha confirms the report of States and those of Louisiana that the hand the capture of fort St. Nicholas, in Shipka which clasps the one clasps the other, signifying that with justice accorded confidence has returned, and with a restored Union the interests of general and State governments are a detachment of Russians and Bulgarians in identical and are one and the same. Louisi- Hain Bogbaz pass, killing two hundred. ana is now free; left to pursue untrammeled the path of happiness which God with a most beneficent hand has evidently marked out for her, and wisdom and patriotism have ap-preciated and recognized that it is not only best, but that it is clearly right that it should be so." Governor Nicholls, by the words, "wisdom and patriotism," evidently personi-fies the action of President Hayes in his southern policy.

he is sometimes mistaken, for there is no man living upon the earth who can be heard by such an audience as this. But he is the head of the army and the head of the navy of the United States, and as such he has put one branch into my hands, and I am bound to tell Massaeres and Outrages by the Russians

> The Russians Declared Beaten-Movements of the Belligerents-Greece and Turkey-Bismarck Preparing to Take a Hand in

NEW YORK, September 17.—The following is furnished by the Turkish minister to the United States: A telegram from the govern-or-general of Adrianople, under date of Au-gust 31st, reports that fourteen Israelites of Kezanlik, massacred by the Russians and Bulgarians, have been buried in the synagogue, with the exception of one who was devoured by dogs. Among these victims were a woman and a girl, the latter fifteen years old, named Thodi Braha, and of great beauty. She was slaughtered after having been violated by from eight to ten Russians and Bulgarians. Forty-three Israelites of and Bulgarians. Forty-three Israelites of Kezanlik-men and women, the greater part wounded and sick-have been saved, with the Mussulmans, by the imperial troops. Others, to the number of three hundred, have been carried out by the enemy into Shipka pass.

LONDON, September 17 .-- Telegraphic lays cause confusion of the dates of the dispatches from the theater of war and lead to misinformation. There has been no serious engagement since the defeat of General Sko-beloff on Wednesday, in which he lost his The Daily News, strong pro-Russian, thus sums up the morning's intelligence: "Looking impartially at the facts presented this morning, we are unable to form any other conclusion than that the attack on Plevna has not only failed, but has so failed it can not be renewed under the conditions in which the Russian commander finds himself place He has attempted what the great German commanders never attempted in French campaign, and has used up his slight superiority of men with extraordinary rapidity. He is liable to be attacked at any givpart of his front by a force larger than any hich he can assemble there. In a word, he s beaten. The battle reported at Duborik, in which the Russians were said to have been defeated, must have been, if at all, at a village five road. Reports say Osman Pasha has a fortified position almost impregnable, naturally, Vatza, on which he will retire if driver from Pleyna. Anyhow the Roumanian attempt to cut his communications seems Chefvet Pasha, the leader in the Bulgarian nassacres, has been sent to command Osman Pasha's reserves at Orkanich, and guard his communications; probably, also, with the view of keeping an eye on Servia. The main body of the czarowitch's army is concentrated between Tierstenik and Biela. concentrated between Tierstenik and Biela.

London.

The headquarters of the Twelfth corps is at Yablanu or Jalyakeanava, near Batin, on No. 223 Second street, this (TUESDAY) evening, at the one given up at Pyrgos. The czurowitch's headquarters is at the lowest monastier. This osition, from Gantra to Barnica Lom, is cut up by gorges, ravines and small streams, and has been further strengthened by formidable earthworks. It has been evidently selected as the best cover on that side for Sistova communication.

ATHENS, September 17.—The reply of the minister of foreign affairs to the British remonstrance against Greek armament, whereto authorize England to assure Turkey that Greece will not make war on her, d.clares Greece has actually given assurances to the British minister that she does not intend to eclare war against Turkey. This is all th Porte, or any other power acting in behalf of Turkey, is justified in asking. Greece can-not renounce her freedom of action without try, and the rights which result from that in dependence.

hortly, and it seems that almost of in preparation for this event the German cabinet sued telegraphic denials that Germany was lute to a more active policy toward Russia. The Porte claims that the rumor never found the least belief there, but on the sion. Consequently a contradiction, just on the eve of the meeting of Bismarck and Andrassy, comes conveniently to stop all further conjectures and inferences, which may have been drawn from them as to the relations between Austria and Germany, and take away the ground from those who neglect no opportunity to rouse and foster suspicions against the policy of Germany on the easter ques-CONSTANTINOPLE, September 17.—The grand vizier has informed Minister Layard that Osman Pasha defeated the Russians Sat-desperate fighting, losing over five thousand men. They then abandoned their positions, retreating upon Sistova and Tirnova. In the meantime the Roumanian corps on the northeast of Plevna were completely routed, with heavy loss, leaving nine guns and a large quantity of arms and nomanition on the field. A dispatch from Shemila to-day says things, said: "You will notice that it is sheathed, emblematic of the existence of peace throughout the land; that upon its scabbard are traced representations of all the great agricultural products of our fertile soil, cessful attacks upon the Turkish positions commanding the Gabrova road. A dispatch from Sulieman Pasha confirms the report of the capture of fort St. Nicholas, in Shipka pass. It was taken at four o'clock Sunday morning, by assault. Sulieman Pasha telegraphs that one of his columns has defeated.

May their trip down the rugged stream of life be one of constant joy and pleasure; and may their path through the world be strewn with the sweetest of roses, is the sincere wish of their friends

W. Z. MITCHELL'S the county of Shelby, State of Tennessee, as the property of R. B. Palne, viz; The east half of the above described twenty-acre tract of land in the 15th civil

HUNYADIJANOS

Dr. J. Marion Sims, New York, "As laxative, I prefer it to every other mineral w Dr. James R. Wood, New York. other bitter water."
Dr. Wm. A. Hammond, New York. "The most pleasant and efficient of all purgative waters."
Dr. Alfred L Loomis, New York. "The ndapted for daily use."

Dr. Fordyce Barker, New York, "Requires less, is less disagreeable and unpleasant than any other." Dr. 1 ewis A. Sayer, New York, "Pre ferred to any other laxative."

A Wineglassful a Dose.

Every genuine bottle bears the name of The Apol.

LINARIS Co. (limited), London.

FRED'K DE BARY & CO..

41 and 43 Warren St.. New York.

Sole Agents for United States and Canadas. DEALERS, GROCERS AND DRUGGISTS PRESBYTERIAN

GRAMMAR AND HIGH SCHOOL corner of Adams street and Charles ton avenue.

MISS J. M. HIGBEE, PRINCIPAL

ON MONDAY, SEPT. 10, 1877 Administrator's Notice.

S. L. RAINES,
Administrator of Alfred E. Raines.
Whitehaven, Miss. and Tenn. R. R., Shelby county

To the Policy-Holders of the Mound City Life In-surance Company, the St. Louis Life Insurance Company, and the Columbia Life Insurance Com-pany:

St. Elmo Commandery, No. 15, K. T. THE members of St. Elmo Commandery,
No. 15, are hereby ordered to attend their stated conclave this (TUESDAY) evening, at 8 o'clock, in fatigue dress, for dispatch of business. Fratres courteously invited.
By order
JOHN D. HUBB, Recorder.

PICH'D H. ALLEN, Ja., THOS. H. ALLEN, Jr. and HARRY ALLEN, have been admitted a partners in my business, interest taking effect from the first day of last September. The business will be continued under the same name and style a August 24, 1877. THOS, H. ALLEN. THOS. H. ALLEN.
RICE'D H. ALLEN, JR.
HARRY ALLEN.

Cotton Factors

Commission Merchants Allen, Nugent & Co. prejudicing Hellenic interests. As to the armament of Greece, the minister points to the recognized independence of his coun-

Advances made on consignments to the above firm by Thos. H. Allen & Co. VIENNA, September 17.—A meeting between Bismarck and Andrassy will take place JONES, BROWN & CO Cotton Factors

AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS 266 Front Street, Memphis. HAVING ample facilities for handling cotton, respectfully solicit consignments. All cotton will be handled in strict conformity to the Rules and Regulations of the Cotton Exchange. Bugging, Ties and Plantation Supplies furnished.

J.J.BUSBY & CO.

276 Front street, Memphis, Tenn

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Sheriff's Sale of Real Estat ..

s bounded thus: Beginning at NW corner of the distribution of Vollentine and Hill avenues; run-ing thence north with Hill avenue 12.21 chains to take at the SE corner of James Paine's tract of land; thence west with the south line of said Jan Paine and the south line of Mrs. S. A. Willifor

The GREAT EUROPEAN NOVELTY

M. H. COOVER.  $\operatorname{Coover} \& \operatorname{Miller}$

DOORS, SASH, BLINDS, Etc

FRAMES OF ALL KINDS MADE TO ORDER

Flooring, Ceiling, Siding and Dressed Lumber all kinds, kept constantly on hand. Gin-work and Tanks made to order. Also Cottonwood Flooring, Ceiling and Siding for sale. We beg an inspection of our large stock.

161 and 173 Washington St., Memohis.

W. B. Galbreath & Co.

Cotton Factors.

11 Union Street, Memphis.

GENTS FOR THE CELEBRATED CHAMPION COTTON GIN AND HULLER.

FALL WHOLESALE DRY GOODS

B. Lowenstein & Bros.

A CARD TO THE TRADE!

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods!

coes: all the popular and leading brands of Bleached and Brown Sheetings and Shirtings. Plain Osnaburg Plaid Osnaburgs, Tickings, Stripes; popular and extensive assortments of Eastern and Kentucky Jeans, n best makes; Bleached, Brown and Colored Canton Flannels; Piain and Twilled, White and Colored Wool Flannels; Plain, Plaid and Striped Linseys; Cassimeres, Coatings, Tweeds, Beavers and Melton

CHOICE LINES, "OUR OWN DIRECT IMPORTATION."

orted Costume Materials—the unrivaled "Mary Stuart," "Unity" and "Red-Letter." Black Mohairs and dpacas in all numbers. Also, the most complete lines of DOMESTIC DRESS FABRICS, in en's Mauds, new and choice styles; Ladies', Misses' and Children's Felt Skirts; Wool, Merino and Cotton Hose and Haif Hose. Specially attractive offerings in IRISH LINENS, TABLE DAMASKS TOWELS, DOYLLES AND NAPKINS, of "our own direct importation." The largest stock of NOTIONS AND GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS in the Southwest. [27] Possessed of unequaled facilities for the distribution of Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods, we can confidently promise 242, 244 and 246 Main St., Cor. Jefferson.

JAMES A. HUNT. J. T. FARGASON & CO.

WHOLESALE Grocers and Cotton Factors

369 Front and 32 Clinton Sts., Memphis.

ON ACCOUNT of OTHER BUSINESS ENGAGEMENTS, DRY GOODS, ETC.

Great Bargains

Close Out as Quick as Possible! HERZOG & BRO.

No. 259 MAIN STREET.

HILL, FONTAINE & CO. COTTON FACTORS

AND WHOLESALE GROCERS, 360 and 362 Front street, Memphis, Tenn.

The OLD RELIABLE UNION IRON WORKS

CUBBINS & GUNN, Proprietors, 160 to 170 Adams street, Memphis, Tenn. The Live Stock, Floral, Fruit, Etc., Dep'ts Saw-Mills, Grist-Mills and Cotton-Presses. Iron Fronts, Iron and Brass Castings, and Boilers (Portable and Stationary), New and Second-hand, from 10 to 60-Horse-power. Everything in the Line of Foundry and Machine-Shop Work AT PRICES TO SUIT THE TIMES. ET ESTES, FIZER & CO. Whole sale Grocers and Cotton Factors. 11 and 13 Union street, Memphis.

EXCURSION.

BEST EVER OFFERED-MOST ATTRACTIVE GRAND EXCURSION TO CHICAGO!

GRAND EXCURSION TO CHICAGO!
And to the great Chicago Exposition (the grandest in America), also to Milwankee and Grand Haven, via Chicago, A cheap trip for everybody. A princely visit to the great, gay, rapid and ratilling city of Chicago, the fairest, fastest and finest city on the American continent, said by some to be the finest city in the world, and at this the most delightful, ampicious and attractive season of the pear, when Chicago, the beautiful and glittering Queen City of the Lakes, and the metropolis of the northwest is at its zenith of life, business and beauty, and clothed in all of its paintial glory and splendor.

On Friday, Getober 5, 1877.

at 7 o'clock a.m., a special train, with ample and first class accommodations in every respect, invaiding Pullman Palace Sleeping-coaches, and an elegant and well kept Restaurant Coach, will leave McComb City, Miss., on the New Orleans, St. Louis and Chicago Bailroud, and run through to Chicago, making close connection at Cairo with the Illinois Central Railroad, one of the finest roads in the United States, running from Cairo to Chicago over one of the most beautiful, fertile and productive sections of country that the eye ever beheld. It is well worth the cost of the whole line of this road.

Fare for the Round Trip to Chicago and Return: Frem McComb City, and between McComb and Jackson and Durant, $17.50; From Durant, and between Durant and Grenada, $16.50; From Durant, and between Grand Junction and Jackson, Tenn. $14.50; From Durant, and between Grand Junction and Between Grand Junction and Between Grand Junction and Duckson and Misan, $13.50;

one to return at pleasure, and compelling no one to remain longer than they wish. Special arrangements have been made with the very best hotels in Chicago to board excursionists, at greatly remoed rates, while in the city. Arrangements have also been made with the leading Theaters, Operakouses, Transfer-lines, etc., at greatly reduced rates, for the benefit of this excursion, thus combining economy with pleasure throughout the entire trip. (We mean exactly what we say in regard to these arrangements.) This is decidedly a rare and cheap opportunity for business men, as well as those in search of pleasure, and a trip in which both business and pleasure can be easily and pleasurity combined. The attention of the hadies in particular is also directed to this, as it is certainly a most magnificent and charming trip for them. Parties desiring to make the trip are requested to buy their tickets at the earliest possible day, and as an inducement, 5 per cent, discount will be made on all purchases on or before October 1st. For further information address. or before October 1st. For further information address U. L. COLLINS, Trezevant, Tenn., General Manager of Excursion.

Or E. A. COLLINS, Milan, Tenn.

Tickets from Memphis and Collierville to Chicago and return, $17; to Milwaukeeland return, $19 50; to Grand Haven and return, $20 50. Arrangements will also be made to sell tickets at reduced rates from Corinth, Iuka, Tuscumbia, Decatur and Huntsville, to connect with the excursion train ai Grand Junction. For lickets and further information apply to BARNEY BUGHES, 287 Main street.

HATS.

GINNING. COTTON GINNING STAR COTTON-GINS No. 68 Union Street.

Aving refitted our ginning establishment with the latest improved Gins, Cotton-dusters, Cleaners, and every kind of machinery necessary for ginning cotton, we are prepared to do better work, making a better turnout, better sample, and cleaning the seed closer, than any gins in or around this city. All cotton in ginhouse covered by insurance. Sacks for shipping seed-cotton furnished. Merchants ordering sacks from our gin will not be held responsible for same, but parties to whom sacks are shipped will be held responsible for same.

Our terms for ginning are as low as the lowest. Our facilities are unsurpassed. Our ginning establishment is complete in every particular.

J. V. PATRICK & CO.

Cotton Ginning HAYDEN & CO. Cor. Poplar and Fourth Sts.

W E have recently rebuilt and fitted up this well-known stand, formerly occupied by G. W. Payne, with the latest improved Gins and Cleaners. We respectfully solicit the patronage of our friends and the public generally. We guarantee the best of work for our customers. Sacks furnished to parties wishing to ship to our gins. All cotton covered by insurance while in our possession.

HAYDEN & CO.

GROCERIES.

50 tubs Creamery Butter-Sweet and 50 boxes Extra Breakfast Bacon-A streak of lean and a streak of fat.

OLIVER, FINNIE & CO

NOTICES.

NOTICE. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. A NNUAL ELECTION—Regular Nominations—For President—Benj. Riseman. For Vice-Presidents—Jas. A. Hunt, F. H. White, A. S. Livermore, L. Iglauer, A. A. Goodbar. Fer Treasurer—John T. Willins. For Committee on Appeals—C. W. Metcalf, F. W. Brode, W. B. Taylor, N. M. Jones, Barney Hughes, Jas. R. Miller, Jno. G. Lousdale, Jr. The nominating committee having presented the foregoing nominations, same will be balloted for on MONDAY, September 24, 1877, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., as provided by the by laws, Committee to Hold Election—J. L. Wellford, J. F. Frank, E. C. Jones.

John S. Toof, Secretary. Notice. THE regular monthly meeting of the Bluff City Building and Loan Association will be held TUESDAY, September 18th, at 8 p.m., 41 Madison stree. A borrower's series always open in this As-sociation. Fourth reries now issued.

S. STURM, Secretary, EXPOSITION. ST. LOUIS

EXPOSITION & FAIR Seventeenth Annual Meeting.

The INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION Opens MONDAY, 10th day of September, 1877. Commence MONDAY, 1st day of October, 1877 THE EXPOSITION AND FAIR Closes SATURDAY, 6th day of October, 1877. Grounds contain 83 acres. Conveniently accessible REDUCED RAILROAD & STEAMBOAT FARES.

PREMIUMS.....850,000 NO ENTRY FEE CHARGED. Grandest Annual Exposition and Fair in the world. Exciting contests of speed in the amphitheater. Fine Art Exhibition of the highest order of merit. THE ZOOLOGICAL GARDEN, with its beautiful buildings, handsome specimens, and complete appointments.
Grand display of Agricultural Implements, Machinery in motion, Mechanical Productions, Produce, Textile Fabrics, Cotton, Minerals, Flowers, Works of 1t, Horass, Cattle and other Demestic Animals, All communications addressed to the Secretary will

G. C. KALE, Secretary.

JNO. C. FIZER